

There is a difference between Republicans in Michigan's 4th Congressional District.

Bill Huizenga

Supports tariffs¹

Supports the SAVE Act²

Supports the Big Beautiful Bill³

Supports war with Iran⁴

Mostly holds virtual town halls

Supported letting USAID die⁵

Closely aligns with Donald Trump

Accepts PAC money⁶

Spends campaign money on unnecessary luxuries⁷

Phil Tanis

Opposes tariffs that act as hidden taxes on American families and businesses.

Supports election integrity, while also believing Republicans should make it easier, not harder, for eligible Americans to vote.

Opposes more deficit spending and believes Washington should stop piling debt onto working families and future generations.

Believes Congress should only authorize war when there is a clear strategy and a direct threat to American security.

Believes members of Congress should meet regularly and directly with the people they represent.

Believes foreign aid should be used wisely, strategically, and in a way that serves America's interests.

Believes Congress must remain independent and fulfill its constitutional duties as an equal branch of government.

Rejects PAC money and stay accountable to the voters.

Will use campaign funds responsibly and keep the focus on the voters.

Phil Tanis is running as a traditional Republican who believes in limited government, fiscal responsibility, strong communities, and direct accountability to the people. Republican voters deserve a choice in this primary, and Phil is offering one grounded in principle, not personality.
